Whoever you are, wherever you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

TO THE SALEM UM CHURCH COMMUNITY

What a winter this has been! All of us are tired of the freezing temperatures and snow. I have good news! Lent begins in March! In Middle English, Lent means spring time, a time of renewal. Not only is nature renewing itself with the budding flowers and green growth, but we are being renewed as well.

The forty days of Lent begin with us remembering who we are. We are humans who have been created by God out of dust and who will one day return to dust. This may sound morbid, but it really is a message of hope. Christians are people of the Resurrection. Jesus has died and Jesus is risen. We know that, but Lent reminds us again of what Jesus did for us. As gardeners prepare the soil to receive the seed so growth can occur, Christians utilize the forty days of Lent to prepare our hearts so seeds of faith can mature. Then on Easter Sunday we just may have a deeper understanding of the Resurrection - a surprise of hope.

In the season of Lent we often focus on our sinfulness and mortality as we look to the suffering of Jesus on the cross for our sins. This Lent we at Salem will be looking towards the event following the Crucifixion - the Resurrection. What is the Resurrection? What does it mean to me? What is death? What is heaven? Is there really such a thing as Jesus' Second Coming? And how does all of this bring us hope in the 21st century?

Bishop N. T. Wright wrote a book that attempts to answer these questions. It is called Surprised By Hope. Each Sunday in Lent the sermons will explicate chapters from this book. Then on Wednesday evenings we will gather to watch a video of Bishop Wright and have discussions.

Here is a quote from the book. "The hope of the resurrection is more than anticipating we will leave this world some day and go to heaven. Rather, it is a bold confidence that God's kingdom, presence, and power are breaking into our world today and a whole new creation has begun." Christ is our hope and we are Christ's hope for the world.

With the Hope of the Resurrection,
Rev. Sue

Tuesdays, 7:30-9:00 pm, March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1 and 8; Community Hall. In this video/book/discussion series, biblical scholar N. T. Wright reveals the amazing full scope of what God's Word has to say about the world to come and the world that is. During Lent we will discover what the hope of Easter really means.

Participant Books will be available. Class leaders: Buck Bartley and Deb Ambrose

SALEM REVISIONING

Seventeen of our Congregation along with Rev. Sue met at the United Methodist Church Conference Mission Center in Fulton, MD on Saturday, February 8 from 9 am to 3 pm. We, along with the retreat leader, Christie Latona from the Baltimore Conference office, spent our time in planning and having fun along the way.. Our goal was/is to have God reveal to us the path Salem is to take now to bring His message to the communities around us and bring souls to the knowledge of Jesus Christ and his Saving Power.

To set the scene, Debbie Ambrose, our Council Chair, set out many treats and beverages for those who had not had breakfast (most of us). Once the meeting started, we discussed The Vision Statement, asking the question "Who are we and who are the people in a 7-mile radius we would like to reach?"

We then discussed the Mission statement to see if we had the same thoughts as expressed in our present statement.

The theme of our retreat was BE-SEE-DO!

Be who you are:

See what you have:

Do (or work out a plan to) reach the community.

After lunch the group was broken up into three groups: the Foundation, the Value and the Discernment Teams. There was a lot of interesting ideas developed in these groups; stay tuned for more information and developments.

REV. JANET ANSWERS HER CALL

On Wednesday, February 12, 2014 Rev. Sue received the following e-mail from Rev. Janet: “Rev. Sue Dear Salem friends, I am very happy to share some good news with you. I have been appointed to serve as Director of Christian Education at Metro.” In the same e-mail she sent a letter to the Salem Congregation: “Dear Salem friends,

I am very happy to share some good news with you. I have been appointed to serve as Director of Christian Education at Metropolitan Memorial United Methodist Church in Washington DC. Metropolitan is a multi-site church with three campuses: the main church across the street from American University, St. Luke in Glover Park, and Wesley on Connecticut Avenue. I am responsible for overseeing the Christian education and spiritual formation programs at all three sites across all age groups, plus working on expanding Metropolitan's outreach to American University. The staff at Metropolitan is wonderful, and I am having a great time meeting new people and figuring out what God wants us to do together in ministry.

Thank you for all your prayers during my time of transition. God is good! I have a wonderful new ministry site, and I know that God has a bright future in store for you at Salem.

Grace and peace,
Janet Craswell”

The Salem Congregation wishes her God Speed and with the confidence that God is with her. We will be continuing to pray for her.

A TIME FOR CHILDREN

Rev. Sue talked to the children about “It’s all about Location” with a picture of St. Valentine, a cross with a heart on it and a basket of lollipop hearts. She spoke of St. Valentine and his work, how Jesus loved us, giving His life for our salvation and with the lollipops she had the children give two lollipops to people they loved. The third lollipop they could keep (with joy).

The adults in the congregation enjoyed the children’s time as much as the children did. Thank you Rev. Sue.

FROM THE CONGREGATION

“Sharing My Thoughts With You” from Charlyne Lewis

We are now going through the 40 days of Lent...a time in our lives to stop and reflect on things we have done; not done; and how we can correct some of the mistakes we’ve made.

Lent is a very special season of our Church year...we can once again ‘feel’ along with Jesus, the scourging, the whip lashes, the heavy Cross, and finally the nails hammered into His flesh...as we travel the road to Calvary along with our Lord. It is also a time of repentance, fasting, and forgiveness on our part.

May each of you experience a ‘new beginning’ this Easter, and rejoice in all the wonderful gifts the Master has so freely given you.

God Bless...

Charlyne

Hymn 593
Mark 12:28-34

180 YEARS AND STILL SERVING

During the past few months we have been concentrating on comments and memories of members and former members of our congregation to provide articles for this column. The thought came to mind to review our former pastors and members "gone before us."

The following words were taken from the 1984 Anniversary Celebration, the picture from an earlier date:

"As a preacher I have to have a text, and my text is I Cor. 12:20: 'But now are they many members but one body.' This was true of the Brookeville membership. There was a great feeling of togetherness in the Church there, a feeling of belonging to one another and to their church.

Rev. & Mrs. Conrad Jordan
1940-1950

Although it was true that if a member was picked at random, it would be found that that member was blood related to nearly everybody else in the congregation. Yet it was also true that there was a tie reaching beyond blood ties that enabled them to feel the tug of their relationship to the church at large. They always met the challenge of that relationship. As the pastoral family we were at once adopted and made to feel at home. There was a tie that bound us hearts and hands together in the work of the vineyard of the Lord.

'Blest be the tie that binds
Our Hearts in Christian love
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.'

ROCK

On Friday, January 31st, Rev. Sue, Mary Ellen Eaton, Tom Luke, Rick Myers along with Amy and Blake Roberts, Jacob Weinberger, Kenny Wahl, Wyatt and Donovan Thompson left Brookeville for a fun-filled weekend at Ocean City. There they stayed in the condo of Bob and Marilyn Lange, and the Rock Youth Retreat sponsored by the Greater Baltimore-Washington UMC Conference. They wish to pass on their most gracious thank you for such wonderful accommodations.

Unfortunately no one took pictures of the group this year and no one provided a report, so the following is from the UMC Greater Baltimore website:

Almost 6,000 youth and their leaders from throughout the eight districts of the BW Conference gathered for ROCK at the Convention Center in Ocean City for fellowship, revival, worship, and concerts by Mandisa and Unsearchable Riches – all centered around the theme, “Got Love?”

The guest speaker for the event was Preston Centuolo, who used Scripture and stories to share with the youth the lesson that God uses “broken” people to do great things; that no one can steal your dreams and when you change, the world changes.

In addition to the festival atmosphere of ROCK 2014, many of the youth seriously explored how their faith can help them address peer pressure, violence and victimization.

SOUPER SUNDAY

Since our youth were at Rock on Super Bowl Sunday, we declared Sunday, February 9th as Souper Bowl Sunday. A special offering was taken and the young people used that money for their annual gift to one of the local food banks. Below is an article taken from Carole Roberts’ Facebook page. Thanks Carole for allowing us to use it and thanks to all the young people for a job well done.

Souper Bowl of Caring !!! Thanks to the generosity of the Salem Congregation, our Youth Group headed out shopping last night with $350 to purchase food for a local food bank. With careful shopping they ended up with a wide variety of foods including canned meats, vegetables, rice, beans, masa, healthy hot and cold cereals, pasta, sauces, and more. The 250 items purchased should help a lot of families. — with Blake Roberts.

SUPPORT FOR COMPASSIONATE CHILD

Thank you Ginny Day Wahl for the pictures of Facebook: I took two of them for my article.

On the evening of February 16th the Youth of the Church, thanks to the chief cook, Carole Roberts, served an Italian Dinner to raise money to support their Compassionate Child, Felix. Also from Facebook is Rev. Sue’s comments: “What a wonderful evening!

The serving line

Thanks to Carole who was the head cook for the evening. We raised a lot of money for Felix. Thanks to all who contributed, ate, and/or stayed to play Games.”

After dinner the youth held their “Game Night” and invited everyone to join them.

One of the many game tables.

30-HOUR FAMINE

Blake Roberts, Rev. Sue, Joey Brantley, Amy Roberts, Barbara Achstetter, Wyatt and Donovan Thompson and Kenny Wahl

Friday, February 21st our youth group: Amy and Blake Roberts, Kenny Wahl, Joey Brantley, Donovan and Wyatt Thompson, and Jacob Weinberger began their 30-hour fast to connect with the children in the Amazon River area who (so many of them) go hungry every day. During this 30-hour time frame they studied the Amazon River Basin to learn more of the region and played games that associated with the World Vision Program. All the monies raised during this effort will go to support the World Vision Program of feeding the children.

The young people were not alone; the Adult help was plentiful and helpful. Those that participated were: Barbara Achstetter, Tom and Tricia Luke, Tricia Thompson, Joe Meisner, Steve Currier, Darlene Currier, Katherine Ennes, Sue Daley, Nancy Morrel, Carole Roberts, Rev. Sue.

To “wrap-up” the time of fast, the young people, still in their fast, went to St. Martin’s Church in Gaithersburg and served dinner to the less fortunate. Afterwards, a “break the fast” dinner was waiting for their return.

Sunday morning the young people had charge of the service; they told of being divided into three groups of 2. Each group represented a child from three South American countries: Brazil, Columbia and Peru. A little about each child was told and Blake Roberts made an interesting and fascinating DVD showing the youth group in action during their famine. Great job, Salem is proud of you.

CHURCH COUNCIL

Church Council met on Thursday, February 27 from 7-9 pm to continue the work begun at the Revisioning Retreat. We have completed a new Mission Statement, a Statement of our Church Values, and a Vision Statement which points us in the direction of where we have discerned that God is leading us. We have been excited by the energy and commitment that has driven this work and are anxious to share our thinking with the congregation. Our plan is to do so sometime in March.

Debbie Ambrose, Church Council Chair

OUR SYMPATHY

Our condolence to the Van Gelder Family, a resident of the Town of Brookeville upon the loss of their wife and Mother, Margaret, who lost her brave battle with cancer.

We are saddened by the loss of our brother and Salem member, Harold Benjamin Johnston, on February 23. He is the son of Flo Johnston.

LORD'S TABLE

March 22nd, 1:00 - 5:00 pm at St. Martins in Gaithersburg.

BROOKEVILLE: CAPITAL FOR A DAY

In August 1814 the British came up the Potomac River and burned our nation's capital. People from Washington fled with what they could carry. Many of these found refuge in the second largest town in Montgomery County, Brookeville. One who sought refuge was President James Madison. The Town of Brookeville will be commemorating the bicentennial of this event with three events in 2014.

- 1) Saturday, March 29, "Brookeville and the Burning of Washington: A Tale of Two Capitals;" an all-day seminar with various speakers. For more information and registration info go to:

www.uscaptiveforaday.org

- 2) Saturday, May 3, Brookeville House Tour & Lunch; our church will be part of this tour. We are in need of docents to give tours through our church.
- 3) Saturday, August 30 - Sunday, August 31 Noon-6 pm, The Bicentennial Celebration. Salem will be used as a staging area for those who are participating in the Living History. Also, Salem will be providing food for the thousands of people expected to attend. Please plan to help prepare food and serve a few hours that weekend. We are also planning an outdoor worship service that Sunday.

Anyone interested in dressing in period costumes or be part of the Living History contact Sandra Heiler at sheiler07@gmail.com

2014 BOOK DISCUSSION

Meetings will be held on Thursdays at 7:30 pm upstairs in the Community Hall. The below was scheduled for March but was rescheduled.

April 3 – Bonhoeffer by Eric Metaxas (biography) (we are giving 2 months to read this book)

Who better to face the greatest evil of the 20th Century than a humble man of faith? As Adolf Hitler and the Nazis seduced a nation, bullied a continent, and attempted to exterminate the Jews of Europe, a small number of dissidents and saboteurs worked to dismantle the Third Reich from the inside. One of these was Dietrich Bonhoeffer—a pastor and author. In this New York Times best-selling biography, Eric Metaxas takes both strands of Bonhoeffer's life—the theologian and the spy—and draws them together to tell a searing story of incredible moral courage in the face of monstrous evil. Metaxas presents the fullest accounting of Bonhoeffer's heart-wrenching decision to leave the safe haven of America to return to Hitler's Germany, and sheds new light on Bonhoeffer's involvement in the famous Valkyrie plot and in "Operation 7," the effort to smuggle Jews into neutral Switzerland.

SIGN-UP FOR ALTAR FLOWERS

Providing altar flowers is a nice way to honor or remember a loved one. Sign-up on the bulletin board. Flowers provided by the donor.

DINNER FOR 8

Looking for an evening out? Looking to join with friends from Salem to share an evening of food, fellowship, and fun?

Join Us!! March 15, 2014, 6:30 pm
Dinner for Eight

We are planning a different kind of “potluck” event. It will be an evening of fellowship in different church members’ homes. If you’d like to join us, sign up on the sheet on the Bulletin Board. You can sign up as a couple or a single. If you are willing to host a group in your home, please indicate next to your name. Please sign up by March 2, 2014.

From the sign-up list, groups of 8 will be formed to join together for dinner. Hostesses will be chosen and are asked to prepare a main dish and provide beverages. Guests will fill in the meal with salads, sides, and desserts. Once groups are formed, hostesses will contact guests about what to bring. Hope you will join us!

Questions: Debbie Ambrose (301-774-4135)

Olney Help: P.O. Box 430, Olney, MD 20830; to volunteer call 301-774-6829. They are desperately in need of rice sides (Rice-a-Roni/ Knorr sides), peanut butter, jelly, canned chicken, fruit juice, snacks such as granola bars/crackers, cake mix/frosting, canned pasta. Please place items in a box in the church hallway. No glass jars.

Millian UMC Food Pantry: Millian UMC, 13016 Parkland Dr., Rockville opens its food pantry on the second Saturday of the month. A box for food items is in the church hallway.

Got Clothing?

We started a new mission this past summer. The Glenmont United Methodist Church has a thrift store and has asked for donations of children’s and youth clothing plus household items such as pots and pans, other cooking utensils, etc. If you have anything you can contribute, please bring them to Salem and place them in the collection box in the side entryway. We will see they get delivered.

Speaking of delivery, I'd like a volunteer(s) that could take the donations to Glenmont UMC at least once a month, depending on quantity collected. If you can help, let me know.

Thank you, Libby

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

Thank you for my valentines, prayers, and visits during my hospital stay. I am grateful for my church family. Janet Howes

PRAYER SHAWLS

Prayer Shawls are available in Salem Community Hall. There is no cost; if you know anyone you want to share a prayer with all the time, see Carole Roberts or Rev. Sue for a shawl. The comfort they give is well worth the effort of delivering one to your friends, family or co-workers. They will thank you!

JUST A REMINDER

To order your Cafè Justo Coffee please contact Kathryn Ennes at church or via e-mail at k_ennes@yahoo.com.

AND THE ANSWER IS –

Our thanks go to Joyce Howes who made an unsuccessful guess. Thanks Joyce for playing.

Lois Erisman

Lois writes: “That’s me, Lois Erisman. Looking scared stiff on my graduation day in 1960 from Bladensburg High School in Prince George County MD.

A long time before that I was born on November 18, at the Naval hospital in Charleston, S.C. Was having a wonderful time growing up with my siblings until 1956 when my dad uprooted us to the great northern state of Maryland. At least WE thought it was the north. Have been here ever since but will always call Charleston my home. My significant other, Tim and I moved to Brookeville 20 years ago and I started my faith journey at Salem in 2000. Greeting me at the door was Anna and Clyde Unglesbee and helping me understand the Bible at the bible study classes was Dick Ranshaw. Lots of cherished memories.”
