TO THE SALEM UM CHURCH COMMUNITY

Rev. Dr. Sue Shorb-Sterling.

To the Salem UM Church Community,
Christ is risen! He is risen, indeed! Alleluia!

We shout these words on Easter morning as we celebrate once again the Resurrection of Jesus the Christ, our Lord and Savior. As Christians we have fun with Easter egg hunts, but even Easter eggs can remind us of the New Life we receive in Christ. This is what the Resurrection means: death has become Life. Sorrow becomes Joy. Darkness gives way to Light. Weakness can be a Strength. Fear gives way to Faith.

The Resurrection of Jesus is God's way of showing us how great God's love is for all of humanity and creation. This love of God is a gift to us. As we accept this love, we become the Children of God. Yes, even adults become like children again. We are awestruck. We see the world differently after we receive God's love. We are curious. We ask questions as we grow in our love for God. And we grow in our love for others as we see the world through God's eyes. John Wesley called this- growing in Christian perfection. We know that we are not perfect. Only God is perfect. And God gives us God's perfect love which continually shapes us and molds us so that our lives become more and more like the image of loving perfection of Jesus the Christ. This is what the Resurrection of the Lord does for us. It perfects us in love. One day this love will be made perfect when we enter into our eternal life with God. Until then, we continue to grow in our second childhood filled with the love for God and each other.

For six weeks the church celebrates our New Life in Christ with the liturgical season of Easter. During this Easter season our worship will celebrate what this Resurrection Love means for us and what a great privilege it is to be a recipient of such great a love. Yes, Christ is risen! He is risen, indeed, in you and in me! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Yours in Christ,
Rev. Sue

MAUNDY THURSDAY SERVICE

March 29, 2018, the congregations of Mt Carmel, Salem and St. Paul United Methodist Churches gathered at St. Paul's in Laytonsville to celebrate Maundy Thursday or if you wish Holy Thursday. This is the day when Jesus celebrated the Passover meal with his disciples and the night he was betrayed by Judas Iscariot.

As we sang "Take our Bread, we ask you; take our hearts we love you; take our lives, O Father we are yours, we are yours," our hearts filled with the joy of knowing we are indeed His. Scripture readings by Meg Clemmer, Jo Schonewolf, Our Seminary Intern,, Rev. Sue and Rev. Jean Lee of St. Paul, after which Rev. Lee answered the question "What is Maundy Thursday."

John 13:1-5 (KJV)<sup>1</sup> Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. <sup>2</sup> And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him; <sup>3</sup> Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; <sup>4</sup> He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. <sup>5</sup> After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

After the hand or feet washing everyone was dismissed.

A SALEM SERVANT

On Sunday, March 18, Halsey Smith was awarded by The Greater Olney Civic Association the Ron Berger Heritage Award. This award recognizes significant long term contributions that have helped shape the development of Olney and/or improves the quality of life that makes Olney such a special place. This award is named for a past GOCA president who helped create GOCA and then remained actively involved for over 40 years, mentoring many over the years.

Halsey was honored for his forty plus years of service to the Olney community through the Montgomery Hospital Board, Sandy Spring Lions Club, American Legion, and the Advisory Board of Longwood Recreational Center.

Well done, good and faithful servant! Jesus said, "...whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant." Mark 10:43b

SCIENCE AND RELIGION SMALL GROUP

Timing: Wednesdays, March 28-May 2 7:00 pm

Description: When we hear about science and religion in the news or in culture, we often hear about an unending, unresolvable conflict. This can leave us wondering how we got here and what we can do about it. Join us for six weeks as we talk about the roots of the conflict narrative between science and religion, how we think about both science and religion, and our responses to the conflict as Christians.

Session outlines:

3/28 : "Blessed are the peacemakers..."

Introduction, background, and history

4/4: "In the beginning, God..."

Conflict in Science and Religion (evolution, creationism, climate change, miracles, ethics)

4/11: "Many parts, one body"

Independence rather than conflict (roles of science and religion)

4/18: "How very good it is when the kindred live in unity"

Dialogue rather than conflict (listening to both science and religion)

4/25: "The heaven declare the glory of God"

Integration rather than conflict (awe and wonder in both science and religion)

5/2: "Let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak"

APPALACHIAN SERVICE PROJECT (ASP) 2018

The 2018 trip to West Virginia is scheduled for June 17-23, 2018. Upcoming Fundraisers:

Yard Sale: Saturday, April 21

Encore Concert: Sunday, April 29 6:00 pm

Sunday, March 25th was another successful fund raiser for Salem's ASP Teams as they prepare for another opportunity to serve others. Usually in the reports of ASP activities we are featuring the youth who give up a week of their summer vacation to go to Appalachia to repair and/or reconstruct homes giving those less fortunate better living conditions. In this report I, your publisher, would like to honor the adults behind our youth. They not only spend their vacation working with, supervising and chaperoning the young people, teaching them the "rules of the road" – so to speak – but every fundraiser you will find the parents of our youth plus many others who can't be with them on their mission but want to be part of the action. Bob Brown has faithfully led the effort for many years. Working with him of course, is his wife, Maryellen. Our Adult team, whether they travel or not, you will find Carole Roberts, Libby Wright, Hisashi Yamagata, Buck Bartley, David Ranshaw, Jesse Myers and not pictured is Wathsala Harischandra.

There may be others who work behind the scene that are unknown, but to all of you we lift our hats in thanks because without you and your caring support, Salem's ASP would not exist. I am sure there are others that help from time to time and to all who provide support a big Thank you!

This fund raiser brought in $826.00 for trip expenses.

A TIME FOR CHILDREN

Rev. Sue brought building blocks and had the children build towers with them and knock them down. She then told how Jesus knocked over the tables in the Temple because the people weren't doing what was right. Sometimes we need to knock things down when it is wrong so that we can rebuild in a better way.

On Palm Sunday our Seminary Intern, Jo, presented to the children a cartoon of the disciples getting the donkey for Jesus to ride into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. Afterward the children answered questions regarding the donkey who, when he knew he was doing God's will, he willingly carried Jesus into Jerusalem.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE THE JOURNEY TO THE CROSS

(A note from Velma, your Publisher: This story cannot be told in one or two paragraphs so I ask that you bear with me as I take you briefly on the Journey to the Cross. I also ask that you grab your Bible and read the scriptures as you read of each station.)

Our Worship Team and Guides: Meg Clemmer, Jo Schonewolf, Rev. Jean Lee and Rev. Sue Shorb-Sterling

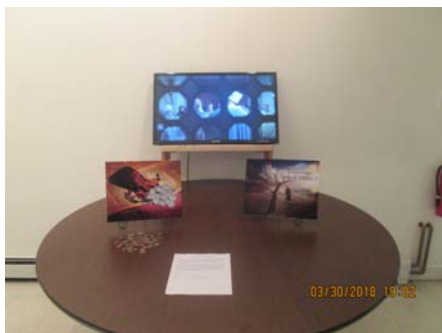

Salem's Music Director Rose Eide-Altman

This Journey is shared by Mt. Carmel, Salem, and St. Paul United Methodist Churches. Come along with us as we retrace Jesus' Journey to the Cross.

STATION #1: CREATION

There was no Scripture at this station but a quote from N. T. Wright's For All God's Worth and another quote by Fr Richard Rohr.

Beautiful pictures of God's Creation are rotation on the screen we were asked to reflect on the image of the infant world in all its perfection.

Now, take a moment to think of the good things God has created in this world.

STATION #2: THE FALL

"The Fall, the Fall, God the fall of Man, the fruit is found in every eye and every hand..."(Gungor)
Read Romans 6:23.

Reflect on "Everything is broken now..." We were instructed to pick a stone from a dish of stones and carry it around with us during the service as a representative of our sins. (A little stone can become heavy!)

STATION #3: THE GARDEN

We were invited to kneel if we were able as we read Matthew 26: 45-46 and to reflect on the pain and suffering Jesus was about to go through. Reflect: Is there an area in your life where you need to make a choice to love ad sacrifice – even if it comes with a cost?

Behind the candles is a small fountain which gave a calming feeling.

STATION #4: BETRAYED BY JUDAS

Read Matthew 26:14-16

The video showed Judas with the Chief Priest, then Jesus and the Disciples in the Garden when Judas betrays Him. Reflect: How much is your integrity worth? Would you betray a friend for twenty thousand dollars? And, why do we seem to compromise our values so quickly for money?

STATION #5: PETER'S DENIAL AND OF OUR DENIAL OF CHRIST

Read Matthew 26:69-75

Jacob Weinberger is our guide at this Station. Reflect: Sometimes our betrayal is not motivated by financial gain but rather social acceptance. A brief quote by Brennan Manning is given and we were asked to think of a time when we in some form denied our Lord. We were asked to write it down and place the paper in the fire.

STATION #6: JESUS IS WHIPPED

Read Matthew 27:27-31a.

As we entered Salem's Memorial Garden the cross was draped in a white robe, our instructions was to take the provided red felt marker and strike the loose part of the clothing making a red mark. Reflect on all the things Jesus underwent before and while on the cross. "O the divine disgrace of our Savior"

Our next stop was inside the Church.

(On a personal note, I found this to be the hardest of all, it was very hard to pick up that red pen and place a stripe on the cloth representing our Christ.)

STATION #7: NAILING AND FORGIVENESS

Read Luke 23:33-34

As we entered the building, we were directed to the Choir Room. As you can see there was a board with partially embedded nails. Our instructions were to reflect on the fact that even as Jesus was dying on the cross He asked the Father to forgive those who put Him there. We were to use the provided hammer and drive the nail into the wood as means of forgiveness to those who have harmed us.

STATION #8: "IT IS FINISHED"

Read Matthew 19:28-30.

Upon entering the Sanctuary we were directed to the Altar where candles were lit. We were asked to reflect on 4 points: Can you feel the presence of death? Can you feel the heaviness of despair? Can you feel the sorrow, emptiness, and confusion, and finally Can you feel the darkness? We were then instructed to extinguish one candle as a symbol of Jesus dying.

STATION #9: "LETTING GO"

Read Romans 6:2-14

Our last stop was at the baptismal font. Here we were given five items to reflect on: Let the rock in your hand symbolize every sinful attitude and action, all that you wish you weren't, the shadow within, the brokenness you have experienced, and finally the brokenness you have caused. We were directed to drop the rock in the baptismal font and let your sin die with Christ.

We were then asked to sit quietly and reflect on the journey we had just taken. The two Pastors extinguished the remaining burning candles, except one. It represented the light of Christ which is eternal. It was taken with them as they left the altar. From the back of the sanctuary the four ministerial members read additional details of that Friday long ago. Then the congregation sang

“When I Survey the Wondrous Cross.” When the hymn ended, we were dismissed and we left in silence.

A slide of a video of
“When I Survey the Wondrous Cross”

AN EASTER POEM

THE RESURRECTION

We hold so close to our hearts
The cross where Jesus died,
But so much more than the blood-stained cross
Is that Jesus came back to life

The stone's been rolled away;
The tomb lay open and bare —
They looked for Him, and then the angel said
That He is no longer here

Oh what joy they must have felt
To see Him just once more,
To eat with Him, to drink with Him,
To receive Him back as Lord

So much did He accomplish
Through His death upon the cross
And in His rising from the dead,
He reconciled us back to God

Nothing else could bridge the gap
That sin had wrenched apart —
Now we can freely go to God
And receive Christ in our hearts.
