TO THE SALEM UM CHURCH COMMUNITY

Dec. 21st Happy Birthday Rev. Sue! Chuck Sterling joins his wife for a birthday photograph.

Dear Salem UM Church Community,

A New Year has begun! And with that comes the hope of a new beginning, but often it doesn't take long before we realize that life goes on about the same. Our problems are still there. The New Year didn't wipe them away. The celebration of the birth of a Savior, Christ, the Lord seems so long ago. However, in the church we continue to celebrate Jesus, making his self known to us in this Season of Epiphany. One could say, I suppose, that the Epiphany is a Jesus Selfie! No, Jesus doesn't post his "selfie" on Facebook, so how is Jesus being made known to you?

Or perhaps Jesus isn't being made known to you, and you are wrestling with doubt. If you are, you are not alone. In fact we should not be afraid to doubt anything. Doubting is not a sign of weakness. No matter how strong our faith is, at some point we experience doubt. When we doubt, we begin to ask the right questions. When these questions are answered, then our faith grows stronger. Doubt causes us to dig deeper into our relationship with God.

Did you know that some prominent Christians wrestled with doubt? C. S. Lewis struggled with issues in his personal life and mood swings. He wrote, "Faith is the art of holding on to things your reason has once accepted, in spite of your changing moods." Mother Teresa, who is remembered for her unwavering faith as she ministered to the poor and sick, struggled with loneliness and doubts. She wrote, "Darkness is such that I really do not see - neither it with my mind nor with my reason - the place of God in my soul is blank.” She felt empty and void of God’s love and faith. Martin Luther had moments of doubt about his salvation. And from the Bible, Thomas doubted that Jesus rose from the dead.

So to all of us who have moments in which we doubt our faith, we stand in good company. We can question the existence of God. We can question the presence of Christ in our life. We can question if the Holy Spirit has any power. We can ask, “If Jesus is our Emmanuel - God with us, then why does he feel so very far away?”

During this season of Epiphany we will wrestle with our doubts. We will ask the questions. We may even scream out our pain. But together, we seek the answers as Jesus is manifest in our doubts and questioning. Those who have doubted before us have shown us that God does hear our questions. Jesus does show up. And the Holy Spirit does continue to offer us comfort.

I would like to know about your doubts, so email me (shorster@yahoo.com), send me a private message on Facebook, or drop me a note. Here are some questions you can consider:

- † Have you ever doubted God?
- † What is/was your doubt?
- † Did your faith grow stronger because of the doubting?
- † How did your faith grow stronger?

2015 is a New Year, but I have faith that we will not be alone in this year as we have not been alone in previous ones. Do you doubt this?

Wrestling With You,
Rev. Sue

WITH DEEP GRATITUDE

As I reflect on 2014, I am grateful for the joint ministries that we have done together. We entered 2014 with some trepidation as we transitioned from two clergy: one elder and one deacon, to only having an elder. If we doubted, God has been faithful. This year has been filled with hard work and joy, as we served alongside each other. Thank you for a great year of ministry.

I would also like to thank the SPRC for granting me two weeks writing leave to finish the project paper for my Doctor in Ministry degree. Upon successful completion of this paper, I should receive my degree in May. I thank all of you for your prayers and continued support.

Rev.Sue

JOY TO THE WORLD
THE LORD IS COME
LET EARTH RECEIVE HER KING!

On Sunday, Dec 21, our youth group was joined by some members of the congregation (AND SANTA!) in singing Christmas Carols to our church’s shut-ins.

All reports coming say it was wonderful.

No Youth Jan 4 and 11
Youth will resume Jan 18

Adopt-a-Rocker!

We have 15, yes, 15 youth and adults going to ROCK in Ocean City from February 6-8, 2015.

Would you consider sponsoring one of us as we head to ROCK? The cost of adopting one of us is only $25. What do you get in return? The joy of praying for us and an OC post card of thanks. Stay tuned for more details.

Safe Sanctuary Reboot

For the past seven years we have observed a Safe Sanctuary Policy. The purpose of this policy is to keep our children, youth, and the adults who work with them safe. Each adult who worked with youth or children has filled out a Sexual Lay Misconduct Form and submitted to a criminal background check. Maryellen Brown received new training this fall. Armed with new knowledge, the SPRC rewrote our Safe Sanctuary policy. Now, anyone who works with our children and youth, must sign a Sexual Lay Misconduct Form, complete a training workshop or an online training program, and submit to a criminal background check. A list will be posted of all adults who have completed all three successfully. Only people on this list will be allowed to work with children and/or youth. Copies of this policy will be made available after the first of the year.

Safe Sanctuary Training: Sunday, Jan 25 after the 10:00 am worship, brown bag lunch.

To take online training see Rev. Sue, Hisashi Yamagata, or Maryellen Brown.

ASP 2015

Please everyone, come out to the ASP fund raisers as moneys make it possible for our three teams to represent Salem UMC in helping people in Appalachia have a better life. They are our hands in this mission field!

Serving are: Carlos Barinas and Blake Roberts
Being served are: Kulley Bancroft and Kenny Wahl

Our ASP teams started their fundraising effort with breakfast on December 7th. There was a very good turn-out for their first event, and no one went away hungry. There will be three teams going this year and I don’t know if it makes a difference or not, but for two teams $11,000 was needed. These young people and adults, donating their time – some their vacation time – to represent Salem in this missionary project NEED our support in all their fundraisers.

Won't you sponsor one of the crewmembers and also help them raise the needed funds for this week away helping someone in need?

Sunday, Dec 14, Cookie Bake-off!

Left to right: Rachel Bartley, Kenny Wahl, and Carole Roberts

What an array of cookies! Almost any kind you could hope for covered the table. The soup was hot and filling. And we have winners! Kenny Wahl was third place, Rachel Bartley took second place with her Snickerdoodles, and for the third year in a row Carole Roberts came through with first place with her own creation, Chocolate Salted Caramel Truffle.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

Future fund- raisers are:

January 3, 2015 – 6:00 pm – Epiphany Auction and Chili Cook-Off - any gifts you want to regift? Other “stuff” you want to get rid of – remember your trash is someone else’s treasure. Also bring a pot of your favorite chili; who knows, you might be the Chili King/Queen this year. ONLY $1.00 a vote! Chili tasting and voting begins at 6:00 pm. All items for the auction should be in the hall by 5:30 pm. Silent auction starts at 6:00 pm with live auction at 7:00 pm.

February 15th – 11:15 am Valentines Breakfast

March 8th – 11:15 am ASP Breakfast

April 18th – Yard Sale (start picking out the items you would like to donate, but do not bring them to church until you are asked).

ALL THESE EVENTS WILL TAKE PLACE IN THE COMMUNITY HALL!

A TIME FOR CHILDREN

As publisher I picked December 21st as the Sunday for “A Time for Children.”

As the children gathered around Rev. Sue, she talked about Christmas and the upcoming play presented by our youth.

She asked the children if they would like to be sheep in the play; of course they were anxious to do so. See their picture under the Youth Group heading.

FROM THE PARISH NURSE

Vaccine News

If you haven't gotten it already, please think about getting your flu vaccine! Flu season has begun and it looks like there will be a lot of cases this year. You can get it at almost any pharmacy or walk-in clinic. You will not get the flu from getting the vaccine. I'm happy to talk with anyone who has any questions about the vaccine. Just ask!

If you are over 60, another vaccine that I strongly encourage everyone to get is the shingles vaccine. If you had the chickenpox (and most of us did as children), then you could get shingles. It can be a very painful illness with a good chance of complications. It's not worth taking a chance on this one. Talk to your doctor soon about getting this vaccine. If you have any questions, ask me!
~Maryellen Brown

MEMORY GARDEN

If you are interested in placing an order for a brick to honor/remember someone, please see the order blank at the end of this newsletter. Cut off time to be included in the spring ceremony is January 31, 2015.

FROM THE CONGREGATION

“Sharing With You”
...from Charlyne Lewis
This brand new year of 2015 brings with it all kinds of unexpected “surprises” for all of us...we only have to be open in our minds and hearts to receive them when they come our way!!

The Epiphany is truly a wondrous thing, isn't it? Wouldn't it be neat if we could be 'little mice' and be at the stable when the Magi arrived on that eventful day, and saw the Babe for the first time? What a picture that must have been...they were truly in awe of Him! We are so blessed each year to celebrate His birth and a 'new beginning' ahead for each of us.

May all of you, dear ones, be loved and blessed in this New Year.

Charlyne

Matthew 2:7-12

THE LONGEST NIGHT

Sunday, December 21, 2014,

Not feeling merry this time of year? You are not alone. Many are experiencing a loss, suffering from depression, or have flash-backs of bad memories at this time when everyone seems to be happy and joyful.

Entering the sanctuary, the unlit candles were circled by a plain wreath; as we lit the advent candles, a prayer was offered after the lighting of each of the advent candles. The first candle (of inclusion) “God of the Lonely, with you all are invited and included. Give us your hope in the midst of our despair and loneliness. Amen” seemed to cover the purpose of the service. The congregation was invited to light a candle around the wreath and place flowers in the wreath, which will be displayed in the sanctuary during the Christmas season. We joined each other in celebrating communion. The attendance was very low but God was with us and brought peace to the hearts present.

THE YMCA YOUTH SNOWMEN

Thanks to all of you who have purchased a gift for a child who participates with the YMCA Youth Mentoring program (formally Bridges to Pals). All of the children were "adopted."

IMAGINE NO MALARIA

We have met our $2,500 commitment for Imagine No Malaria!

CONDOLENCES

Our condolences to Bob Gainer's family, former Salem member, on his death from health issues on December 10th. You may send cards to Marti Gainer, Woodside Plantation, 339 Forest Pines Rd., Aiken, SC 29803.

Our Christmas Baskets list filled up quickly and once again Salem stepped up to provide for those less fortunate this holiday season.

We at Salem have a lot to be thankful for and the ability to step in and help others is one of our greatest blessings. Thank you one and all.

A SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR

Brynn McKeever with Santa

All I can say is WOW! Despite the wet weather (thank goodness it was not snow), we pulled off a great bazaar. What a talented group of people we have here at Salem UMC and you should be so proud of yourselves!

The food was fabulous as it always is. Perfect comfort food and some were ready to eat lunch at 10:00am when they came in the door. Thank you ladies!

The bake table had such yummys for the tummy. Such clever ideas at the craft table. The kids enjoyed making gifts for their loved ones. What a variety of unique treasures.

There were a total of 82 theme baskets and when I left after 3:00 pm this afternoon, only 15 remained not sold. We keep learning year after year what people are looking for and willing to buy. We hope to have a post-bazaar meeting to reflect and begin getting prepared for the 2015 event.

The numbers are still being crunched as we wait for the expense numbers and we still have a few outstanding IOU's due, so please pay Kulley.

Thank you, thank you and thank you once again! We did well despite it all.

Message from Rev. Sue

I received this message from Rev. Mansfield "Kasey" Kaseman, Interfaith Community Liaison, and wanted to share it with you.

Dear Executive Committee and Clergy Response Team,

I think you will appreciate the remarks offered last Sunday at the Rally by Assistant Police Chief, Luther Reynolds. Luther was part of our team of five addressing the COPS Annual Summit in August at the National Law Enforcement Training Center in New Brunswick, Georgia. I remind you that our Montgomery County Model is being promoted as an antidote to Ferguson, Cleveland and Staten Island. The key is forging trust between the police and community that our faith communities are best suited to facilitate.

The spirit as well as the content of his remarks should increase our confidence in working together. In addition to these printed words he spoke about his own life and the importance of reaching out and mentoring, particularly the youth. This was in response to several young people whose remarks together with our County Executive, Ike Leggett, pointed to the need for addressing the issue of discrimination and being present for them.

Luther Reynolds' Remarks at Rally For Black Youth

Greetings - My Brothers and Sisters

I am here to represent Chief Manger, our Patrol Services Bureau Chief Darryl McSwain (who are unable to attend) and the men and women of the Montgomery County Police Department.

There is great pain in this room and in many areas of our communities and we must confront and embrace this time of struggle and emerge better for it. God promises to make good of all things and I am confident He will indeed make good of this challenging season in our communities – that requires us to continue building relationships and working together!!

There is no room for hate or discrimination of any kind in our communities and as a police department we must work hard to build and maintain public trust between the police and our community. When I heard our chief asked recently about whether Montgomery County is ready to respond to a Ferguson-type protest environment, he stated then and has almost daily reiterated to all of our department, we must work every day to build trust and legitimacy so we never face such distrust and disenfranchisement.

This means proper hiring, continuing to build our diversity in representing the communities we serve, training, policies, accountability, supervision, leadership and most of all, working with the communities we are a part of.

We are fortunate in Montgomery County to have a great deal of trust and a history of partnering and working through conflict with the community. Our department is imperfect and not without opportunities to constantly improve – we are focused daily on delivering excellence and constant improvement both internally and externally.

We have a model of problem solving and community policing where we cannot achieve success in keeping our communities safe without working closely with the people we serve.

Among the many challenges we face is that the communities who need us the most, often trust us the least. We need our communities to report crimes (many communities who need us the most have the largest amount of unreported crime), we need people to be witnesses so that when we are able to make a case we can reach the proper adjudication and we need our neighbors to be engaged in sharing information with the police, allowing us to properly and effectively address safety concerns in our neighborhoods.

Just over this past busy weekend, and in particular last night, our police officers were involved in a number of incidents where they partnered with community members who were engaged in reporting serious crimes in progress and who also, confronted perpetrators and prevented further victimization. In large part we have an engaged and supportive community and this is yet another example of that and I am thankful for a community that is united in many ways...conversely, an article on the front page of the Post today reads; "Two Lives Collide, A Nation Divides."

I see deep-seated pain among our community and country as the deaths of Eric Gartner, Tamir Rice, Michael Brown and others are witnessed and mourned in close succession. I would like to share the following Bible verses I believe are appropriate: Colossians Chapter 3

"Set your minds on things that are above and not on things that are on earth"

"Put to death what is earthly in you"

(12-14) "Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other, as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony."

I thank you for inviting our police community to bear in this together with you as we lead through these painful times. Difficult and challenging days lie ahead and we will only emerge a better and more powerful community, as we move forward together and with great compassion and love for each other. As police officers in this great community which I love, we must work hard to build on the traditions of excellence and as we travel the path of keeping our neighborhoods safe we can only do that one contact, one communication, one honest and ethical event or conversation at a time. Our actions must speak loudly in what we do, how we treat people with dignity and respect and how we work towards unity and strength with you.
