Dealing with Our Devices

Thursday, April 15 from 1:00–2:00 P.M. in the Community Hall

Do you have a frustrating iPhone or iPad? You're not alone! We will gather in the Community Hall to learn some "iDevice" basics such as: what the different icons mean, what different

"swipes" do, how to Facetime, how to make the images bigger, how to adjust the sound. What would make your life easier? Before you come try to think of at least one thing you want to learn about your device. Please let Rev. Emily know if you plan to participate.

Islam Chat

Thursday, April 15, 2021 on Zoom from 6:30-7:30 P.M.

<https://zoom.us/j/96648750779?pwd=ZkJ6bnRDTFVuQXRhTXdwcGRNK29zZz09>

Are you curious about Muslims, the Middle East, or Arabic? Join Chris Hart to chat about Islam and more. Chris spent six years as an Arabic translator in the military and attained a high level of proficiency in the language. There is an inseparable connection between language and culture. To be proficient in a language you must be familiar with the culture which includes history, politics, religion, and customs. Our goal is to learn in an unbiased way—Chris will not share ideas about “right” or “wrong.” Instead, we’ll discuss history, cultural development and religion from an outsider’s perspective. Come with your curiosity and send in your questions ahead of time to emily@salemunitedmethodist.org.

Reopening for In-Person Worship

Beginning May 02, in-person worship will resume. Details to follow.

Scripture

1 Corinthians 12:12-27 (NRSV)

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. <sup>13</sup> For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

<sup>14</sup> Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. <sup>15</sup> If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. <sup>16</sup> And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. <sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? <sup>18</sup> But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. <sup>19</sup> If all were a single member, where would the body be? <sup>20</sup> As it is, there are many members, yet one body. <sup>21</sup> The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." <sup>22</sup> On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, <sup>23</sup> and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; <sup>24</sup> whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, <sup>25</sup> that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. <sup>26</sup> If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

<sup>27</sup> Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.
